L'Aigle Noir Hotel Fontainebleau, A place out of time.

CLASSIC FRENCH HOSPITALITY

IN THE HEART OF IMPERIAL CITY

A few beats from the wings of Paris, the 16th century mansion is ideally located at the foot of the castle with privileged access from the Jardin de Diane. Its gates open onto the Place Napoléon Bonaparte and the Bellifontaine life, with its cafes and terraces, its carousel and its shops, its historic pedestrian streets. A perfect location in the center of Fontainebleau, ideal for discovering the imperial city of French history and the magnificent forest of Fontainebleau.

THE JOURNEY TOWARDS INSPIRATION

Our building was built in the 16th century. In 1764, it became L'Aigle Noir Hotel; baptized, thus, to evoke the bird of Jupiter, symbol chosen by the Emperor to represent it. 257 years later, we have renovated this unique hotel, in a French neoclassical style, to best enhance its elegance and the intimate warmth of a mansion. Unimaginable work, for an iconic place, to experience the privilege of a timeless emotion.
